A circular official stamp, likely from a government or military agency, is located in the bottom right corner. It contains text around the perimeter, but it is mostly illegible due to the image quality. The stamp is partially overlaid by two handwritten signatures in blue ink.

A platform scale with a digital display showing 0.00. The scale has a large, flat platform and a vertical column with a digital display at the top. The display shows 0.00 in red digits. The scale is made of metal and has a handle on the side. The background is a solid blue color.
